

Marriage Encounter

Weekend held Friday night through Sunday.

For all couples and priests who have a sincere interest in deepening their commitment to their sacramental way of life.

Meaningful communication within relationship is the focus of the weekend . . . your marriage deserves it.

Priest Encounter

Mid-week held Tuesday night through Thursday.

Seeks to promote priestly renewal through communication and renewed awareness of the sacramental life.

Fr. Hilary Ottensmeyer, OSB, Director of Priestly Spirituality, wrote to his brother priests in June, 1979, "... some three years ago, I made the Priest Encounter. It was a turning point in my life. I encourage you to take advantage of this unique possibility to grow in your relationship of prayer with God, and your relationship with others, especially your fellow priests, for the growth of your ministry."

This is a credit card.

This is a plastic check.

Here's the difference.

On the left, is an ordinary VISA® credit card. When you use it to make purchases or get cash, it allows you extended payment terms in exchange for a monthly finance charge.

On the right, is the new Passport® Check Card. It is not a credit card. It's an extension of your checking account... a plastic check.

You can use the Passport® Check Card the same way you would use your checks, but without the hassle of actually writing a check, and without having to present all sorts of identification to some merchants. Passport® Check Card is easy to use and it will save you time and money.

Passport® works where checks won't work.

The Passport® Check Card works everywhere that honors VISA®. So, you can buy merchandise from local or out-of-town merchants with your own Indiana National checking account funds. And you can get cash from your checking account from any of the 18,000 participating VISA® banks, worldwide.

Passport® won't cost you a cent.

Since Passport® Check Card is not a credit card, there is no finance charge or annual fee. And although it is part of your Indiana National checking account, there is no check-writing service charge when you use it, because you aren't really writing a "paper" check.

Transactions on your Passport® Check Card will be fully described on your monthly checking account statement, not on your VISA® statement. You won't pay a finance or service charge when you use your Passport® Check Card. Check it out... it saves you time and money.

Passport® check Card is checkless checking. Apply today.

“American Fletcher, you’re our kind of bank.”

“When American Fletcher said, ‘Cullisons, we want to be your bank’, we said, then prove it to us. And they said they could combine our checking and savings into one account—called Combo. So we’d have one easy-to-read monthly statement that would list our checks in order, show the interest earned on our savings and tell us what our checking and savings balances are.

“So we said, American Fletcher, you’re our kind of bank.”

History of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis

The Diocese of Vincennes—now the Archdiocese of Indianapolis—was established by Pope Gregory XVI on May 6, 1834. The territory then comprised the entire State of Indiana and the eastern part of Illinois. The latter was separated from the Diocese of Vincennes upon the erection of the Diocese of Chicago, November 28, 1843.

By decree of Pope Pius IX, January 8, 1857, the northern half of the state was erected into the Diocese of Fort Wayne, the boundaries being that part of the State north of the south lines of Fountain, Montgomery, Boone, Hamilton, Madison, Delaware, Randolph and Warren Counties. The remaining southern half of the State made up the Diocese of Vincennes, embracing fifty counties. It covered an area of 18,479 square miles extending from the north line of Marion and contiguous counties to the Ohio River, and from Illinois on the west to Ohio on the east.

The second bishop of Vincennes was permitted by Apostolic Brief to establish his residence at Vincennes, Madison, Lafayette or Indianapolis; Vincennes was, however, to remain the See City. This permission, with the subtraction of Lafayette, was renewed to the fourth bishop.

Upon his appointment, the fifth bishop was directed to fix his residence at Indianapolis, although the site of the Cathedral and title of the See were continued at Vincennes. By Apostolic Brief dated March 23, 1898, the title of the diocese was changed to that of "Diocese of Indianapolis," with the Episcopal See in the city of Indianapolis. By the same Brief, the Patron of the diocese was to remain St. Francis Xavier, the title of the Old Cathedral at Vincennes.

The Apostolic Decree of His Holiness, Pope Pius XII, creating the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, was issued October 21, 1944. On December 19, 1944, by Executorial Decree of the Papal Delegate, Most Reverend Amleto Giovanni Cicognani, Apostolic Delegate to the United States, the Papal Decree of Pope Pius XII was solemnly proclaimed in Saints Peter and Paul Cathedral, elevating Indianapolis to the status of an Archdiocese, the State of Indiana becoming the Metropolitan Area. The Dioceses of Evansville and Lafayette in Indiana were created by the same decree and, along with the Diocese of Fort Wayne, made Suffragan Sees of Indianapolis. Upon establishment of the Diocese of Gary on February 25, 1957, it too became a Suffragan See.

TOBIT WEEKEND

For Couples Thinking Seriously of Marriage

Suitable for both Catholic and Protestant Christians

"If an engaged couple ever asked me about Tobit, I would tell them that it would be one of the best spent weekends of their lives."

"The moments we spent together in dialogue will long be remembered as deeply meaningful and intimate moments of discovery."

"It really gave us the chance to know each other—even though we have gone together for three and a half years."
