General History

The Diocese of Vincennes—now the Archdiocese of Indianapolis—was established by Pope Gregory XVI on May 6, 1834. The territory then comprised the entire State of Indiana and the eastern part of Illinois. The latter was separated from the Diocese of Vincennes upon the erection of the Diocese of Chicago, November 28, 1843.

By decree of Pope Pius IX, January 8, 1857, the northern half of the state was erected into the Diocese of Fort Wayne, the boundaries being that part of the state north of the south lines of Fountain, Montgomery, Boone, Hamilton, Madison, Delaware, Randolph and Warren Counties. The remaining southern half of the state made up the Diocese of Vincennes, embracing fifty counties. It covered an area of 18,479 square miles extending from the north line of Marion and contiguous counties to the Ohio River, and from Illinois on the west to Ohio on the east.

The second bishop of Vincennes was permitted by Apostolic Brief to establish his residence at Vincennes, Madison, Lafayette or Indianapolis; Vincennes was, however, to remain the See City. This permission, with the subtraction of Lafayette, was renewed to the fourth bishop.

Upon his appointment, the fifth bishop was directed to fix his residence at Indianapolis, although the site of the Cathedral and title of the See were continued at Vincennes. By Apostolic Brief dated March 23, 1898, the title of the diocese was changed to that of "Diocese of Indianapolis," with the Episcopal See in the city of Indianapolis. By the same Brief, the Patron of the diocese was to remain St. Francis Xavier, the title of the Old Cathedral at Vincennes.

The Apostolic Decree of His Holiness, Pope Pius XII, creating the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, was issued October 21, 1944. On December 19, 1944, by Executorial Decree of the Papal Delegate, Most Reverend Amleto Giovanni Cicognani, Apostolic Delegate to the United States, the Papal Decree of Pope Pius XII was solemnly proclaimed in SS. Peter and Paul Cathedral elevating Indianapolis to the status of an Archdiocese, the State of Indiana becoming the Metropolitan Area. The Dioceses of Evansville and Lafayette in Indiana were created by the same decree and, along with the Diocese of Fort Wayne, made Suffragan Sees of Indianapolis. Upon establishment of the Diocese of Gary on February 25, 1957, it too became a Suffragan See

St. Francis Hospital Center

“We believe there’s more to good care than good medicine.”

As one of the largest hospitals in Indianapolis, St. Francis has the most modern technology and equipment for obstetrics, oncology, open heart surgery, geriatrics and sports medicine.

And we have something else vitally important—that St. Francis spirit.

At St. Francis, we provide the right kind of health care for every need. From our specialty units to our 24 hour emergency department. We offer alternatives, too, at our occupational health center four blocks south of the hospital. We help businesses keep down their health care costs. At night and on weekends, the center becomes Promptcare, a minor emergency care facility to help individuals quickly and conveniently. We even offer fitness and wellness programs for business and individuals.

FAR INTO THE FUTURE

This September a seminary unique in its service to the Church throughout America celebrates its 100th anniversary! The Pontifical College Josephinum, founded in 1888 in Columbus, Ohio, celebrates a century of service.

Since its founding, the Josephinum has prepared over 1000 priests who have served in dioceses and religious communities across the nation and abroad. Throughout the past century, the Josephinum—always committed to preparing good priests to serve God's people—has been responsive to the changing needs of the Church in America. Today, the Josephinum offers special programs in both its College of Liberal Arts and the School of Theology to prepare priests for service to and ministry among Hispanic Americans.

As the Pontifical College Josephinum looks to the future, it maintains its founder's vision to prepare priests for wherever they are most needed. The Josephinum is prepared to become an even more valuable resource for the Church!

For more information about the programs in the Josephinum's College of Liberal Arts or the School of Theology, please contact:

Born to bring out the natural reader inside every child.

Heath Reading

It's as natural as breathing for children to love good stories...to learn from good stories...to be inspired by good stories.

On this simple premise, Heath Reading uses authentic literature as the focus for all learning and teaching. Only a series that started fresh could be so in tune with the natural ways that children want to learn and teachers want to teach.

Uncharted Territory

Within each of us dwells uncharted potential for greatness and good, for wisdom beyond knowledge. Park Tudor students realize their undefined potential through the experiences of involvement. Our students may be spectators at tennis or volleyball matches, or participants in cross-country races. Some publish the school newspaper, others plan class or club activities. Small class sizes with many extracurricular and academic offerings mean that all students get the opportunity to explore the joys of involvement.

At Park Tudor, students chart new territories as they discover the world.

DAUGHTERS OF ISABELLA
a Catholic Fraternal Organization

St. Elizabeth, serving birth, single and adoptive parents, is a professional, supportive service to women with unplanned pregnancies and is based on a belief in the worth and sanctity of human life and the goals of helping each woman make a decision that is best for her and her child and assuring each child of a loving home.

St. Elizabeth, 2500 Churchman Avenue, is an agency of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Indianapolis which provides residential and out-patient care to women, single or married, with unplanned pregnancies. St. Elizabeth provides short-term care for newborn infants. The agency is licensed by the State of Indiana to place children in permanent, adoptive homes.

Services are available to any woman without regard to race, religion, ethnic origins, age, marital or economic status. They may choose to live at St. Elizabeth or be served in their home communities throughout Indiana.

PROGRAMS

MEDICAL:

Prenatal and postpartum care is supervised by the Chief of the Obstetrical Department of St. Vincent Hospital and Health Care Center. Qualified St. Elizabeth obstetrical nurses co-ordinate the medical care of residents and out-patients. Prenatal classes are offered.

COUNSELING:

Individual — One to one professional counseling is designed to foster understanding of individual attitudes and values. The focus is on developing awareness of self and the responsibilities of parenthood.

Group — Participants who may be very much alone in fact or fantasy have an opportunity to share feelings and experiences.

Family — The emotional stress of pregnancy is shared in a supportive setting by individuals close to the expectant mother.

Counseling is provided by qualified professional social workers.

EDUCATION:

Classes on junior high and high school level are taught by licensed teachers.

TENDER LOVING CARE PROGRAM:

Short-term care of infants by volunteer families gives new mothers a period of time to make the best decisions and plans for the future for themselves and their infants.

PLACEMENT SERVICES:

SUPPORT SERVICES:

Group counseling is offered for birthmothers who have placed their infants for adoption. A Post Adoption Group for St. Elizabeth adoptive families provides an opportunity to share parenting experiences and concerns.

PACT:

Parent and Child Together (PACT) is a program designed to help young mothers progress toward self-sufficient, knowledgeable and responsible parenting while fostering the identification of a new family unit.

Fees are based on the cost of service with provisions for adjustment to specific conditions. The United Way of Greater Indianapolis, the Daughters of Isabella from throughout Indiana and the Catholic Archdiocese of Indianapolis are the major funding sources.

St. Elizabeth continues to accept applications for adoption although there are more couples wanting to adopt infants than there are available infants. Services to adoptive couples are not limited by religion; St. Elizabeth honors the request of a birthmother concerning the religious background of the couple adopting her child.

Anyone wishing information may call (317) 787-3412 between 8:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. Many of St. Elizabeth's clients are referred by school counselors, clergymen, doctors, or other social service agencies.

An administration building completed in 1980 is the newest building at St. Elizabeth in Indianapolis. It houses a clinic, offices and meeting rooms. At the left is Isabella Hall, a resident facility for 26.

The Aztec Advantage...

We specialize in working with volunteer planning and building committees of churches and other not-for-profit groups.

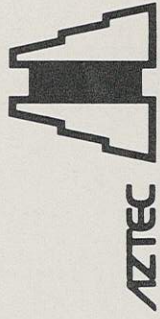

As a construction management firm, Aztec's professionals are precise, sensitive to detail and concerned with the total project's long-term success. That's a commitment we make to the Parish Faith Community.

Person to person

Education is a personal process — personal growth, personal goals, personal comprehension. At Marian College, we understand that. That is why we keep our classes small, why our professors are always accessible, and why we take the time to see each student as an individual.

We understand that the most important things only happen when a professor helps a student go beyond the obvious — to explore the possibilities, the opportunities, the very values that shape our lives.

That sort of education can only happen one person at a time.

We call it the human-to-human learning process. We don't believe there is a better way to pass on the knowledge and wisdom of one generation to the next.

Perhaps that is what the Sisters of St. Francis had in mind when they founded Marian College more than fifty years ago.
