LEGACY FOR OUR MISSION:

For Our Children and the Future

What ministries will benefit from the campaign?

The preliminary goal of the Legacy for Our Mission Campaign is to raise at least $100 million for the following six priorities that will help us meet the growth challenges of our local Church:

Our Parish Ministry—enhancing and expanding parish ministries through parish capital stewardship campaigns for capital, direct ministry, and endowment priorities.

Our Mission of Education—enhancing and sustaining the excellent work of our Catholic schools through capital improvements, student financial assistance, and innovations in teacher development and programs for children with special learning needs.

Our Missions at Home—supporting home mission parishes and schools in urban and rural areas providing specialized ministries to multicultural populations in our archdiocese.

Our Mission of Charity—renewing our commitment to reach out to the poor, elderly, homeless, and marginalized members of society through the work of Catholic Charities agencies.

Our Future Ministry—investing in future leadership and ministry needs through vocations recruitment, education of seminarians and priests, formation of permanent deacons, and funding for new parishes and schools.

Our Ministry of Care—caring for the special needs of retired priests, providing for the spiritual needs of guests at Our Lady of Fatima Retreat House, providing for our cathedral, and supporting the ministry of Catholic cemeteries.

What percent of archdiocesan funds will be directed for the benefit of local parishes, schools, ministry agencies and retired priests?

A 100 percent allocation of archdiocesan funds will be directed for the benefit of parishes, schools, ministry agencies, and retired priests.

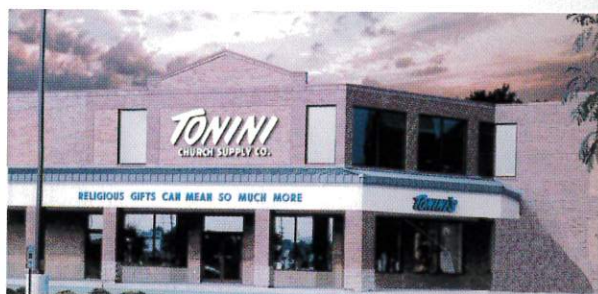

The campaign plan calls for archdiocesan funds to be allocated as capital grants and as endowments for capital, student tuition assistance, and other forms of direct ministry.

How can I/we make a gift to the Legacy for Our Mission Campaign? What is the length of the pledge period?

We ask that you pray about making a three-year pledge to the campaign. This may enable you to consider a larger gift that can be funded over a period of time while giving the archdiocese the assurance of support for the project. You will have the flexibility to fulfill commitments on a monthly, quarterly, semi-annual, or annual basis.

THE VALUE OF A CATHOLIC EDUCATION

"They taught me how to explore and challenge thinking about social issues."

My dream is to make a positive difference in people's lives by offering legal guidance and support in a caring and respectful way. One of the most important lessons my professors taught me is how to explore and challenge social issues through written communication and that societal change is possible by using an ethical, respectful approach. The college's values, based on the teachings of Saint Francis, are an important part of the education I received and they will guide me forever.

Kellie Mears

Coat-of-Arms

The archdiocesan coat-of-arms was commissioned by Bishop Joseph Elmer Ritter in 1934. Designed by Pierre de Chaignon La Rou, of Cambridge, Massachusetts, it comprises a blue cross on a gold field and the fleur-de-lis, symbolic of our faith brought here by French missionaries, including our first bishops, who were French. The fish and trident recall the Native Americans of the area, who spoke Algonquin, which means "at the place of spearing fish." Above the shield is a bishop's miter, showing that the coat-of-arms is that of an episcopal see.

Logo

This symbol, or logogram, for the Church in central and southern Indiana was commissioned by Archbishop Daniel M. Buechlein. He asked Benedictine Father Eric Lies, an artist-calligrapher of Saint Meinrad Archabbey, to fashion a new symbol that would capture the diversity found in the Archdiocese of Indianapolis.

Father Eric, working with Saint Meinrad seminarian David Reinhart, created a design with four stylized "views" of the archdiocese, one in each quadrant of a cross: an urban landscape, a small town, a farm, and open, hilly countryside. All four vistas are held together in unity by the cross, which touches and embraces each of them.

When Jane Lee, director of publications and graphics for the archdiocese, began working with the design, she added an arched line around the design and thus fashioned a stained-glass window whose four panes give the viewer four glimpses of our local Church.

Blue, which has been identified with the archdiocese in the blue cross of the coat of arms, was chosen as the "official" color for the logo when it is not printed in black. The particular shade of blue used in the colored version approximates the blue color found in the stained-glass windows of the Cathedral of SS. Peter and Paul in Indianapolis.

General History

The Diocese of Vincennes—now the Archdiocese of Indianapolis—was established by Pope Gregory XVI on May 6, 1834. The territory then comprised the entire state of Indiana and the eastern third of Illinois. The latter was separated from the Diocese of Vincennes upon the establishment of the Diocese of Chicago, November 28, 1843.

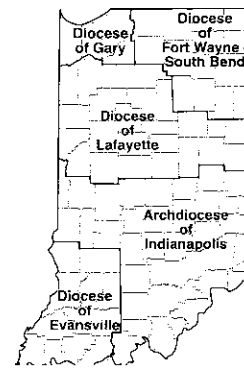

By decree of Pope Pius IX, January 8, 1857, the northern half of the state became the Diocese of Fort Wayne, the boundaries being that part of the state north of the south boundaries of Fountain, Montgomery, Boone, Hamilton, Madison, Delaware, Randolph, and Warren counties. The remaining southern half of the state made up the Diocese of Vincennes, embracing 50 counties. It covered an area of 18,479 square miles extending from the north boundaries of Marion and contiguous counties to the Ohio River and from Illinois on the west to Ohio on the east.

The second bishop of Vincennes was permitted by apostolic brief to establish his residence at Vincennes, Madison, Lafayette, or Indianapolis; Vincennes was, however, to remain the see city. This permission, with the subtraction of Lafayette, was renewed to the fourth bishop.

Upon his appointment in 1878, Bishop Francis Chatard, the fifth bishop of Vincennes, was directed to fix his residence at Indianapolis. Although the site of the cathedral and the title of the see were continued at Vincennes, Bishop Chatard used St. John the Evangelist Parish in Indianapolis as an unofficial cathedral until the Cathedral of SS. Peter and Paul was completed in 1907. St. John the Evangelist Parish, established in 1837, was the first parish in Indianapolis and Marion County. By apostolic brief dated March 28, 1898, the title of the diocese was changed to that of "Diocese of Indianapolis," with the episcopal see in the city of Indianapolis. Although the bishop's official residence was changed, the patron of the diocese remained St. Francis Xavier, the title of the Old Cathedral at Vincennes. In 2006, following the canonization of Mother Theodore Guérin, the first canonized saint from the archdiocese, the Holy See proclaimed her as patroness of the archdiocese along with Francis Xavier.

An apostolic decree of His Holiness Pope Pius XII, creating the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, was issued October 21, 1944. On December 19, 1944, by executorial decree of the papal delegate, the Most Reverend Amleto Giovanni Cicognani, apostolic delegate to the United States, the papal decree of Pope Pius XII was solemnly proclaimed in SS. Peter and Paul Cathedral, elevating Indianapolis to the status of an archdiocese, the state of Indiana becoming the metropolitan area. The dioceses of Evansville and Lafayette-in-Indiana were created by the same decree and, along with the Diocese of Fort Wayne, made suffragan sees of Indianapolis. Upon establishment of the Diocese of Gary on February 25, 1957, it too became a suffragan see.

The current size of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis is 13,757.7 square miles, according to 1990 measurements from the Indiana State Library Reference Division, and comprises the counties of Bartholomew, Brown, Clark, Clay, Crawford, Dearborn, Decatur, Fayette, Floyd, Franklin, Hancock, Harrison, Hendricks, Henry, Jackson, Jefferson, Jennings, Johnson, Lawrence, Marion, Monroe, Morgan, Ohio, Orange, Owen, Parke, Perry, Putnam, Ripley, Rush, Scott, Shelby, Switzerland, Union, Vermillion, Vigo, Washington, and Wayne and the township

Chaplaincies

Besides staffing parishes and schools in the archdiocese, the local Church always recognized its responsibilities to care for the spiritual needs of those who avail themselves of other institutions located within the archdiocese. Those that are an integral part of the Church and those of the secular society, in particular, the archdiocese provides chaplains for the Newman centers, hospitals, homes for the aged, and other public institutions. These chaplains are listed below:

Newman Centers

In addition to the Catholic colleges within the archdiocese (see the "Educational Institutions" section), there are 9 other universities or colleges, either public or private. Priests working in the Newman Apostolate care for the spiritual needs of the Catholic students and faculty members of those colleges.

Enhancing Lives

Our Sunday Visitor is all about making a difference.

Across the nation or around the world, our Catholic resources provide millions of people and parishes the information and inspiration to help them lead more rewarding, faith-filled lives.

Since our founding nearly 100 years ago, we have been making a difference with our weekly newspaper, magazines, books, pamphlets, website, offering envelopes, and more.

As a non-profit entity, our net earnings are redistributed through the Our Sunday Visitor Institute to help fund hundreds of local and national Catholic projects.

Our Sunday Visitor is proud to be the largest Catholic offering envelope supplier and one of the nation's largest Catholic publishers—and equally proud of our Northeast Indiana heritage that has enabled our success.

We're committed to bringing the Catholic Faith to life!

GIBAULT

"Providing Life-Changing Opportunities to Children, Families and Communities since 1921."

Gibault is a home for troubled children who have been removed from their homes. Gibault was founded in 1921 by the Indiana Knights of Columbus and has helped more than 8,000 children learn to lead happy and healthy lives. Often times Gibault is the last opportunity for our kids to receive treatment before they find themselves involved with the Department of Corrections or 'lost in the system.'

Call Zach Pies at 800-264-1156 to learn how you can help Gibault provide life-changing opportunities!

A special thanks to our Donor Family and the Indiana Knights of Columbus for your continued support and prayers.

THANK YOU!

Do you know how it all started?

Our Mission
Blest Art, Inc. has been formed to market beautiful religious handicrafts here in the United States and Canada to support the shrinking population of Christians in the Holy Land. This is due to the continuing conflicts in the Middle East. Christians, once the majority, now comprise less than one percent of the population in the region. Six hundred Christian families (mostly Catholic) who live in the Bethlehem area, rely on the sales of these handicrafts for their daily bread. By purchasing their works of art, you are supporting the Christian community in the Holy Land and preventing them from fleeing their homeland. These families protect and defend Holy sites such as The Church of the Nativity, The Church of the Holy Sepulchre, and The Shepherd's Field.

Thank-you for your support of this very worthy cause.

God Bless!
